3                   CHAIR MITCHELL: Good morning. My

1                   3/28/2023       Siting Board       18-F-0087

2           changes to the agenda?

3                               SECRETARY PHILLIPS:   There are no
4           changes to the agenda.

5                               CHAIR MITCHELL:   Thank you.   We will 6           begin with Case 18-F-0087, Application of the Flint
7           Mine Solar, L.L.C. for a Certificate of Environmental 8           Compatibility and Public Need Pursuant to an Article
9           10 for Construction of a Solar Electric Generating 10          Facility Located in the Towns of Coxsackie and 11          Athens, Greene County.   Presented by Heather Behnke,
12          Managing Attorney, Department of Public Service,
13          Jason Zehr, Chief of Environmental Certification and 14          Compliance, Office of Electric, Gas and Water, 15          Department of Public Service is available for 16          questions.

17                               Ms. Behnke, please begin.

18                               MS. BEHNKE:   Good morning, Chair
19          Designee Mitchell and members of the Board.   Before 20          you today is an order granting a petition for 21          amendment of the Board's August 4th, 2021 order
22          granting a Certificate of Environmental Compatibility
23          and Public Need with Conditions to Flint Mine, L.L.C.
24          The Certificate approved construction and operation
25          of a 100 megawatt utility scale, solar electric

1                   3/28/2023       Siting Board     18-F-0087
2           generating facility consisting of up to 454 acres of 3           photovoltaic or P.V. panels together with associated 4           facilities to be located in the Towns of Coxsackie
5           and Athens in Greene County.

6                   On August 29th, 2022, Flint Mine Solar
7           filed a Petition for Amendment seeking approval of a
8           proposed modified layout which includes the following
9           changes:

10                   Removing P.V. arrays from certain
11           areas and changing the location of certain P.V.
12           module areas; changing alternating current electrical 13           collection lines from messenger supported
14           wiring/racking integrated collection methods to the 15           use of primarily overhead collection lines with 16           limited installation of varied collection line at 17           certain locations to minimize vegetation disturbance
18           and associated visual impacts; changes in proposed 19           grading and the use of single access trackers instead 20           of fixed tile P.V. arrays for certain locations in 21           order to maximize energy production.

22                   The amendment petition does not 23           request any waivers of any local laws or changes to 24           any certificate conditions. The secretary to the 25           Siting Board consulted with the Department of Public

1                   3/28/2023       Siting Board     18-F-0087
2           Service Staff, the Department of Environmental 3           Conservation and the Department of Health and in a 4           February 16th, 2023 letter, concluded that the 5           proposed modifications would not result in a
6           significant adverse increase to environmental impacts
7           as compared to the certificated project and,
8           therefore, do not constitute a revision that would 9           require a hearing under the regulations.

10                               The secretary's letter included a
11           thorough review and addressed the potential impacts
12           of the proposed changes for the project, including 13           visual, archeological, cultural and historic 14           resources, wetlands and streams and threatened and 15           endangered species, all of which are summarized in 16           the order.

17                               The Sleepy Hollow Lake Association of 18           Homeowners submitted comments which were addressed in 19           the Secretary's letter and are also addressed in the 20           draft order. The proposed modifications are not 21           anticipated to result in any increase in adverse 22           impacts to the Sleepy Hollow Lake watershed. As 23           specified in the amendment petition, no grading is 24           proposed within 625 feet of Cocksackie Creek or 400
25           feet of Murderer's Creek.

1                   3/28/2023       Siting Board     18-F-0087

2                   Further, per the final approved Storm
3                   Water Pollution Prevention Plan, appropriate erosion 4                   and sediment control measures will be installed and 5                   maintained at the Project's limit of disturbance to 6                   max -- minimize risks of any potential conveyance of 7                   runoff or discharge into the creeks during 8                   construction. As such, the modified layout and 9                   additional grading are not expected to result in any
10                  significant adverse increase to environmental impacts
11                  as compared to the certificated facility.

12                  The order before you recommends
13                  approval of the amendment to the certificate because 14                  the modifications proposed in the amendment petition 15                  do not constitute any significant increases in 16                  adverse impacts compared to those addressed for the 17                  certificated project. If the order is approved, all 18                  of the certificate conditions will remain applicable.

19                  Accordingly, the order before you
20                  approves the petition for the amendment of the 21                  certificate. That concludes my presentation and 22                  we're available for any questions.

23                  CHAIR MITCHELL: Thank you, Ms.
24                  Behnke. I have no questions on the item. Let me 25                  turn to my fellow board members for any comments or
